

We are against deregulation. Experience in other countries has shown that service suffers. There are no advantages to customers, especially those in rural areas. The public post office must continue to have an exclusive privilege to handle letters.

Sidney Cornish
B.C.