

Dear advisory panel,

I have no wish to have our postal service deregulated. Doing so will add to the further deterioration of the systems that make Canada so great. Furthermore, I have no desire to have my privacy compromised by American companies that may potentially operate in Canada if the postal system were open to competition.

Thank you for your attention,

Ryan Glendenning
BC