

I just wanted to say that I believe our public post office should continue to handle all mail. Why would you want to change a system that works perfectly well. Mail is handled efficiently and promptly. The mail carriers work hard and deliver mail to urban and rural areas.

If you change the system, there will be a ripple effect that will hurt us all.

Susan Graham
Ontario