

we need to keep the post office a public service deregulation will be the start of the end of a public service,just look at what has happened in other countries

debbie leachman

b.c