Canada Post Corporation Strategic Review
330 Sparks Street (HCCR)
Ottawa, ON
K1A 0N5

Dear Sir/Madame:

RE: Canada Post Corporation Strategic Review

The Town of Nackawic was notified by the Canadian Union of Postal Workers that the Canada Post Corporation is conducting a strategic review of our public post office and that no public hearings are being held as part of the review.

The Town of Nackawic is very fortunate to have a public post office within our municipality. The post office is used, not only by our residents, but by thousands of people in the surrounding rural communities. Deregulation has led to post office closures, less service, fewer jobs and higher postal rates for the public and small businesses. In the event of an office closure, people would have to travel a great distance to send or receive their mail.

Council expressed their concern over this matter and supports the Canadian Union of Postal Workers. The Town of Nackawic does not support the deregulation of Canada Post and urges the government to hold public hearings to address the concerns of the public on this important issue.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Kathryn Clark'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Kathryn Clark
Acting Chief Administrative Officer
